

K-LOVE radio serve the Tucson area where my family lives. We are regular listeners and support the station financially. This is a great station that provides an alternative to the trash on public commercial stations, we can listen without fear of what we hear. The loss of this kind of family radio would be felt throughout this community.